

in December 6, 1887, but there was no balance for distribution among his heirs, and by Decree of the Circuit Court for Frederick County passed in No. 5233 Equity, his one-fifth interest in said Marble Quarry lot was sold and later conveyed to his brother, Israel C. Rinehart.

5. That the one-fifth interest that said Israel C. Rinehart had inherited from his father, together with the one-fifth interest of his brother, Daniel, acquired as above set forth, was sold and conveyed by the Surviving Executors of Israel C. Rinehart to a certain J. Herbert Miller, who immediately thereafter conveyed one-third of said two-fifths interest unto Edward J. Rinehart, son of Israel C. Rinehart, and a one-third of two-fifths interest unto William C. Rinehart, another son of Israel C. Rinehart, and retained the remaining one-third of two-fifths interest in himself.

6. That said Edward J. Rinehart, by his Last Will and Testament, probated in the Orphans' Court of Carroll County, devised his one-third of two-fifths interest to his widow, Minnie L. Rinehart, for life, then to his three children: Harry I. Rinehart, Carroll S. Rinehart, and Alice M. Reifsnider; that said Harry I. Rinehart and Alice M. Reifsnider are residents of Carroll County, Maryland, and said Carroll S. Rinehart, by his Last Will and Testament admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court of Carroll County on January 25, 1957, gave and devised his whole estate to his widow, Ruth Roop Rinehart, who also resides in Carroll County.

7. That said William C. Rinehart, by his Last Will and Testament, probated in the Orphans' Court of Carroll County, devised his one-third of two-fifths interest to his widow, Minnie Gertrude Rinehart, for life or during her widowhood, with remainder to his two children, Maybelle Rinehart Baker and William Buffington Rinehart, both of whom now reside in said Carroll County, and the said Minnie Gertrude Rinehart died without having remarried.

8. That your complainant has been unable to determine whether the said J. Herbert Miller is living or not, and if not living, who may be his heirs at law as to the one-third of two-fifths interest in said property retained by him.

9. That your complainant has been unable to ascertain the unknown owner or owners of the interests in said property that vested in the said Evan T. Rinehart and Ephraim F. Rinehart upon the death of said Israel Rinehart in 1871.
